BIENVENIDO, P. JOHN CORDERO

Sacerdote de los Misioneros Marianos de la Santa Cruz (MMHC) desde hace más de 30 años, el Padre John Cordero es actualmente párroco de la Iglesia Católica de la Sagrada Familia (Holy Family Catholic Church) en Artesia, perteneciente a la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles, California. A lo largo de su ministerio sacerdotal ha servido en la formación de seminaristas, como consultor para el ministerio catequético y en diversos cargos de liderazgo dentro de su comunidad religiosa. El Padre Cordero obtuvo el Doctorado en Ministerio en la Universidad de Fordham, en Nueva York. Su sólida formación en teología pastoral y práctica le ha permitido ofrecer conferencias, retiros espirituales y programas de formación tanto para laicos como para el clero, incluyendo su participación como ponente en el Congreso de Educación Religiosa de Los Ángeles

WELCOME FR. JOHN CORDERO

A priest of the Marian Missionaries of the Holy Cross (MMHC) for more than 30 years, Fr. John Cordero is currently the Pastor of the Holy Family Catholic Church in Artesia in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles in California. His prior pastoral experience includes stints in seminary formation, a consultant for catechetical ministry, and various leadership positions in his religious community. Fr. Cordero received his Doctorate in Ministry from Fordham University in New York and this background in pastoral and practical theology has given him opportunities to give talks and retreats to lay people and clergy, including the Los Angeles Religious Education Congress.

LA VOZ DE SU PARROCO

Queridos parroquianos de nuestra comunidad de San Pedro. Les exhorto a cada uno de ustedes, que lean de forma detenida la carta que nuestro Obispo Frank Caggiano a publicado en la página web de la Diócesis sobre los recientes acontecimientos donde se consagraron a cuatro nuevos obispos sin el mandato del Santo Padre y que en respuesta la Santa Sede emitió un decreto de excomunión a los implicados. La carta completa la pueden leer en nuestro boletín digital como también en la pág. Web de la Diócesis de Bridgeport tanto en inglés como en español usando este link Una declaración del Obispo Frank J. Caggiano sobre la Sociedad de San Pío X – Diocese of Bridgeport

THE VOICE OF YOUR PASTOR

Dear parishioners of our San Pedro community, I urge each of you to carefully read the letter that our Bishop Frank Caggiano has published on the Diocese website about the recent events where four new bishops were consecrated without the mandate of the Holy Father, and in response, the Holy See issued a decree of excommunication for those involved. You can read the full letter in our digital bulletin as well as on the Diocese of Bridgeport's website in both English and Spanish using this link. A Statement from Bishop Frank J. Caggiano Regarding the Society of Saint Pius X – Diocese of Bridgeport

CRS and Caritas Venezuela are working to provide earthquake-affected families with critical aid, including:

- Emergency shelter and essential household items
- Food assistance
- Safe water, sanitation and hygiene
- Emergency health and trauma care
- Mental health and emotional support
- Protection for vulnerable populations, particularly children, older adults and people with disabilities

CRS and Caritas Venezuela Response

CRS is responding alongside our long-standing partner Caritas Venezuela, whose nationwide network provides a far-reaching, trusted and effective presence in affected communities.

CRS has partnered with Caritas Venezuela for decades ... Together, we are already working to improve food security, nutrition, livelihoods and water systems in vulnerable communities across the country.

Together, CRS and Caritas Venezuela are working to quickly identify urgent needs, coordinate with humanitarian partners and deliver lifesaving assistance to the communities hardest hit by the earthquakes. Families who have lost their homes—or cannot safely return because of damage and aftershocks—need shelter, food, clean water and other essentials. Some are also grieving loved ones or caring for injured family members as they try to recover from the shock of the disaster. CRS and Caritas Venezuela will prioritize those facing the greatest risks, including children, older adults, pregnant and nursing women, people with disabilities and other vulnerable groups.

Recognizing the emotional toll of the earthquakes, CRS and Caritas Venezuela are providing emotional support and counseling alongside emergency assistance to help families cope with trauma and loss. This assistance is being delivered through rigorous monitoring, accountable supply chain tracking, and strong community engagement and feedback—all backed by CRS' experience managing complex emergencies that meet the highest standards for accountability.

A Long-standing Partnership

Caritas Venezuela is one of the country's largest and most trusted humanitarian organizations. With a nationwide structure spanning national, diocesan and parish levels and a permanent presence in communities across the country, it is often the first to respond when disaster strikes. This extensive network enables CRS and Caritas to work closely with parish priests, lay leaders, health facilities, schools and community organizations, helping reach vulnerable families in informal urban settlements, remote rural areas and Indigenous territories where humanitarian coverage is often limited.

CRS has partnered with Caritas Venezuela for decades to strengthen local capacity and respond to humanitarian needs. Together, we are already working to improve food security, nutrition, livelihoods and water systems in vulnerable communities across the country. Our partnership and preparations are what enable us to provide lifesaving assistance in response to this latest catastrophe.

Looking Ahead

As needs evolve, CRS and Caritas Venezuela will continue to adapt the response to address the most urgent priorities while supporting communities through the early stages of recovery. The response will focus on expanding lifesaving assistance to families affected by the earthquakes and providing critical support as they begin rebuilding their lives.

CRS and Caritas Venezuela Respond to Twin Earthquakes

People walk past a collapsed building following powerful, deadly twin earthquakes in Caracas on June 24, 2026. CRS is supporting its Church partner Caritas Venezuela to provide urgent relief. The earthquakes are considered the country's worst in more than a century.

Context

On June 24, 2026, two powerful earthquakes struck northern Venezuela just seconds apart, causing widespread destruction across Caracas and surrounding states. The twin earthquakes—the strongest to strike the South American country in decades—flattened buildings, damaged roads and left families searching for safety. Within the first 12 hours, more than 160 deaths were reported, nearly 1,000 people were injured, and thousands of families were displaced. These numbers are sure to rise as the full extent of the damage becomes clearer. As aftershocks continued, the president declared a state of emergency, schools and non-essential services were suspended, and Caracas' airport was temporarily closed after sustaining heavy damage.

As search and rescue efforts continue, Catholic parishes in Venezuela have opened their doors to shelter displaced families and provide emergency assistance. Through its longstanding partnership with Caritas Venezuela, CRS is supporting rapid assessments and preparing to deploy additional humanitarian workers to expand lifesaving relief for people who have lost homes, livelihoods and a sense of security.

Emergency Relief Priorities

The earthquakes have intensified humanitarian needs in a country already facing one of the region's worst humanitarian crises. An estimated 7.9 million people were already in need of assistance due to years of economic crisis, food insecurity and weakened public services.

3 de julio de 2026

Queridos amigos en Cristo,

Con profunda tristeza les escribo sobre los recientes acontecimientos relacionados con la Sociedad de San Pío X, conocida como la FSSPX. El 1 de julio, en Écône, Suiza, la Sociedad consagró a cuatro nuevos obispos sin el mandato del Santo Padre y en contra de su voluntad expresa. En respuesta, la Santa Sede emitió un decreto el 2 de julio declarando que los obispos implicados han incurrido en la pena de excomunión.

De particular importancia para nosotros en la Diócesis de Bridgeport es la aclaración que acompañó a ese decreto. La Santa Sede ha dejado claro que el clero de la Compañía debe ser considerado ahora cismático. Esto significa que, a partir de hoy, los sacramentos que celebran son ilícitos y, lo más importante para los fieles, las confesiones que escuchan y los matrimonios que presiden son considerados inválidos por la Iglesia. Sé que estas palabras son difíciles de escuchar, especialmente para quienes entre nosotros han participado, ya sea regularmente o en ocasiones, en liturgias celebradas por sacerdotes de la Compañía. Con los años he llegado a conocer a algunas de estas familias. Me ha conmovido su amor por la belleza de la liturgia sagrada, su devoción a nuestra tradición católica y la seriedad con la que buscan criar a sus hijos en la fe. Mi corazón está con ellos en este momento doloroso y quiero que sepan que siguen formando parte de nuestra familia diocesana.

También quiero ofrecer una palabra de tranquilidad. Esta excomunión no recae en quienes simplemente han asistido a estas liturgias por un sincero deseo de adorar y que nunca han tenido la intención de rechazar la autoridad del Santo Padre ni la enseñanza de la Iglesia. Lo que la Iglesia pide ahora es sencillo: conociendo la situación tal y como se encuentra, los fieles de la Iglesia Católica ya no pueden participar en las liturgias de la Compañía, pues hacerlo conscientemente sería compartir una separación del Sucesor de Pedro.

Así que invita a volver a casa a quienes antes adoraban con la Sociedad. La venerante adoración que ha atraído a esos fieles sigue muy viva en nuestras propias parroquias. La misa tradicional en latín (el Vetus Ordo) sigue celebrándose en nuestra diócesis en la parroquia de Santa María en Norwalk, el Oratorio de los Santos Cirilo y Metodio en Bridgeport y el Oratorio del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús en Georgetown, además de la celebración de la Santa Misa en su forma ordinaria en toda nuestra diócesis. En estos lugares sagrados no encontrarás solo la belleza que atesoras, sino la plenitud de la comunión con la Iglesia universal y con nuestro Santo Padre, el Papa León XIV. Como nos recuerda el antiguo dicho, “Donde está Pedro, allí está la Iglesia” (Ubi Petrus, ibi Ecclesia).

También estoy agradecido de compartir que nuestro Santo Padre ha hecho provisión para cualquier sacerdote o miembro de los fieles de la Compañía que desee volver a la plena comunión. Nuestra diócesis está lista para recibirlos con los brazos abiertos y gran ternura. Cualquier persona que desee seguir este camino, o que tenga una pregunta personal sobre su propia situación (por ejemplo, respecto a un matrimonio o una confesión), se anima calurosamente a hablar con un sacerdote de la diócesis, quien ofrecerá orientación con paciencia y cuidado.

Por favor, únete a mí en la oración por todos los que se ven afectados por estos acontecimientos, por el clero y los fieles de la Sociedad, y por la unidad de la Iglesia de Cristo. Oremos también por nuestro Santo Padre, el Papa León XIV, que lleva la pesada carga de pastorear y unificar el rebaño que le ha sido confiado.

Que María, Madre de la Iglesia, vele por todos sus hijos y los acerque cada vez más al corazón de su Hijo.

Sinceramente tuyo en Cristo,

El Reverendísimo Frank J. Caggiano
Obispo de Bridgeport

Co-operative Mission Sunday July 18th and 19th

Our Church is a mission Church. It is evangelizing in areas of the world where our brothers and sisters in Christ are struggling to meet their basic needs. War, famine, persecution, and in many instances, it is simply the lack of resources, are obstacles the faithful face each day. There are priests, religious brothers and sisters, and lay people who are devoting their lives to spreading the Gospel and caring for the spiritual and physical needs of the faithful in these lands. Would you please help them with your prayers and use that weekend's second collection to support them with your financial generosity? Thank you.

Re: Co-operative Mission Sunday

Dear Friends in Christ,

We are pleased to inform you that this year's Co-operative Mission Sunday is scheduled for July 18th and 19th. Many of you are welcoming to your parish representatives of various church ministries serving the developing world, so your parishioners can learn firsthand about the needs of our brothers and sisters in Christ living in those lands.

The war in Ukraine and the Middle East, the violent attacks and persecution that are depriving people of the means to safely practice their faith and satisfy their daily needs.

Whether or not your parish is hosting a visiting missionary, we pray that your parishioners will be as generous as possible with the donation they will be offering in the envelope for the second collection for the Mission Cooperative Appeal. Their financial sacrifice will make all the difference to the "front-line" responders who give of themselves to provide spiritual and physical relief to the faithful in these struggling communities. Our prayers and contributions are very much needed and are appreciated more than they might realize.

Would you be kind enough to include the attached in your parish bulletin/newsletter to encourage your parishioners to participate in the Church's missionary work. Feel free to edit it as you see fit.

Please accept my sincere appreciation for your support and generosity.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Deacon David Flynn,
Director Pontifical Mission Societies
Diocese of Bridgeport
